THIS WEEK AT OAKDALE ST GEORGE

Sunday 26 June 2022
Trinity 2

Dear Friends,

This week we revisit a familiar reading from Galatians. This prayer inspires me to remember all that St. Paul was trying to teach us. I hope it inspires you too.

Lord our God,

We Your people come to You this day fully aware that we need your presence and your help in our lives, yet aware as well that we often fail to stop and to turn to you for that help.

We get caught up in the troubles and the turmoil of daily living - we become busy with the goals that we have set for ourselves and those that come to us from our work and our families and our friends.

We strive to be loving, we seek joy and peace, we desire to be gentle and patient and kind, to show goodness, and to have self-control—and yet these things all too often elude us.

Help us, Lord, to root ourselves more deeply in you; to seek your will for our lives; to stop and to listen for your voice when we are troubled; to fully rely on you when we strive to do what is right, to remember you and trust in you when we are assaulted; to meditate on your goodness and your gracious will when we begin each day - so that like trees by a stream which send down their roots to the water, we may produce by your power the fruit of your Spirit. Amen

Sue

The Collect

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth: send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whoever lives is counted dead before you. Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Reading: Galatians 5. 1, 13-25

For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another. Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

Gospel: Luke 9. 51-62

When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set towards Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, 'Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?' 'But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village.

As they were going along the road, someone said to him, 'I will follow you wherever you go.' And Jesus said to him, 'Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.' To another he said, 'Follow me.' But he said, 'Lord, first let me go and bury my father.' But Jesus said to him, 'Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.' Another said, 'I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home.' Jesus said to him, 'No one who puts a hand to the plough and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.'

Unconstructive Criticism: Bestselling author Rob Parsons believes Christians are increasingly violating the Church community's standards with waspish critique and verbal attacks. He explains why we must be wise in how we handle the power of the tongue in an article in Premier Christianity Magazine. Click here to read the article:

PCC MEETING 28th June

If you have any items you wish to raise with the PCC please let either Penny or me know at least 48 hours before the meeting.

Sue Colborne Honorary PCC Secretary

Quiet Day ~ 8th July 2022 11am-3pm Led by Pam Clark LLM

'Waiting on God'. Many of us make decisions and think that they are God given instead of waiting for the real God time. Here we learn that 'doing things' is not the most important walk in our Christian journey as we accept that waiting on God and learning to listen is important.

The day will include worship in church, a talk, quiet time and get together before a lunch break -- bring your own lunch drinks will be provided. The afternoon session will include another talk, activity, quiet time and a final worship session.

Information leaflet with sign up form available at back of church, or let Pam know that you would like to attend.
