THIS WEEK AT OAKDALE ST GEORGE
1st November 2026
All Saints Day Trinity 22

Dear Friends,

This weekend many families will be celebrating Halloween. An annual event that apparently dates back some 2000 years. For a few hours people will dress up with scary costumes and have a lot of fun in the process. Then it's all packed away, until this time next year.

On Sunday the Christian communities will be celebrating the Saints or Souls as they are sometimes referred to. Those who have made their mark by living out the gospel message and witnessing to the love, hope, and renewal from God expressed in his Son our Lord Jesus Christ.

Whilst we celebrate, we will remember those saints who have influenced our lives, whose memory we cherish, because they helped us as we grew in our faith. Their witness is something we can celebrate every day for the rest of our lives. Hopefully we too can be like them and be witnesses to Gods amazing love for each one of us.

Blessings Tom

Collect

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Readings

1 John 3.1-3

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Matthew 5.1-12

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: 'Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.'

Post Communion

God, the source of all holiness and giver of all good things: may we who have shared at this table as strangers and pilgrims here on earth be welcomed with all your saints to the heavenly feast on the day of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen
