THIS WEEK AT OAKDALE ST GEORGE

Easter 6
Sunday 5th May 2024

Dear Friends

Our scripture readings this Sunday are about the power of the Holy Spirit, and Jesus exhortation to his Disciples to love one other.

In a world with so much conflict in wars and oppression, where millions of people have become refugees and had to abandon their homeland, its hard to see where the Holy Spirit, and the love Jesus talks about exists.

Well despite the ever presence of fear, of life threatening danger, the Spirit of God and the love of Jesus prevails. In the midst of it all are people dedicated to relieving the suffering of others, often risking their own lives, but motivated by compassionate hearts and minds.

Our prayers should be centred on those who have suffered and are suffering, but also on the courageous efforts of those in the midst of it all revealing the unconditional love that is God given.

Blessings

Tom

God our redeemer, you have delivered us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of your Son: grant, that as by his death he has recalled us to life, so by his continual presence in us he may raise us to eternal joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Acts 10.44–48

While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word. The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said, 'Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?' So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

John 15.9–17

As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete. 'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.

Post Communion

God our Father, whose Son Jesus Christ gives the water of eternal life: may we thirst for you, the spring of life and source of goodness, through him who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Amen
