THIS WEEK AT OAKDALE ST GEORGE

Sunday 25th September 2022
Altogether in Church
Harvest Festival

Dear friends,

This week we come together to celebrate the harvest of our community. As we gather to bring our offerings for those less fortunate than ourselves, we remember our promise to be fruitful and productive and thank God for the harvest of our own lives. Dwelling within each of us lie God's gifts of the fruits of the spirit (Galatians 5:22-26), let us use those gifts to help us develop a willingness to persevere, a sense of compassion in our hearts and a conviction that basic holiness permeates all things.

Sue

Please note: From 2nd October we will be resuming a collection during the service

Readings next Sunday

2 Timothy 2.8-15

Luke 17.11-19

The Collect

God, who in generous mercy sent the Holy Spirit upon your Church in the burning fire of your love: grant that your people may be fervent in the fellowship of the gospel that, always abiding in you, they may be found steadfast in faith and active in service; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

1 Timothy 6.6-19

Of course, there is great gain in godliness combined with contentment; for we brought nothing into the world, so that we can take nothing out of it; but if we have food and clothing, we will be content with these. But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and in their eagerness to be rich some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains. But as for you, man of God, shun all this; pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. In the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ, which he will bring about at the right time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords. It is he alone who has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see; to him be honour and eternal dominion. Amen. As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share, thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life.

Luke 16. 19-31

'There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man's table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side. He called out, "Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames." But Abraham said, "Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us." He said, "Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father's house—for I have five brothers—that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment." Abraham replied, "They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them." He said, "No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent." He said to him, "If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead." '

Post Communion

Keep, O Lord, your Church, with your perpetual mercy; and, because without you our human frailty cannot but fall, keep us ever by your help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Looking after our Church:

We have missed any available Saturdays to organise group grounds work; so if you have a spare hour or so here are some things you might like to do throughout the Autumn and Winter to help keep our grounds looking welcoming:

- ◆ Sweep up fallen leaves (along car park wall, and the hedge in front of the East Window,
- ◆ Sweep stones back onto the gravel
- ◆ Weed the 'edging' in front of the gravel
- ◆ Cut and dispose of brambles and ivy along the car park wall.
- ◆ Dig up the accumulating soil along the car park wall.

There are other areas which some church members have 'adopted' to keep tidy, but any area where you see weeds, you are welcome to tackle them for us!

We have a Green Bin in the Garden of Remembrance, but this fills up quickly so if you can take a bag home to your own bin or take it to the Recycling Centre that would be very helpful.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: Faithworks are working with St. Mungo's to deliver safe spaces to provide refuge during extreme weather. If you would be willing to join our SWEP Squad, you would be working with a team who have a heart for those affected by homelessness.

When a hot or cold amber weather warning is announced and the Severe Weather Emergency Protocol is called, our volunteer team will respond at short notice to serve at the SWEP venues alongside St. Mungo's staff. You could be the rescue that saves a life.
